

carers' link barossa and districts:
dementia friendly communities presents

CHANGING Minds

raising awareness of persons living with dementia

Join us for an evening of tapas and fine wine as we showcase how the Barossa can become a dementia friendly community.

Monday, 19th September 2016

6:00 PM to 10:00 PM

The Vine Inn, Murray St, Nuriootpa

Featuring:

Maggie Beer

Cook; Food Specialist; Author; Business Owner; Public Speaker and Advocate for healthy eating for older Australians and in particular those living with Dementia.

Dr Faizal Ibrahim

Consultant Geriatrician, QEH; Public Speaker; Researcher; Advocate for improving the care and the quality of life for people living with Dementia.

Brett Partington

Founder of Dementia Downunder; Committed Advocate and Carer; Public Speaker; Raising awareness of people impacted by Dementia through the sharing of his personal story.

$30.00